the DEPARTMENT OF STATE'S of its agents and newsmen at the old price, single copies at the desk five cents, and it is furnished through prompt and faithful carriers to regular subscribers at twenty-five cents. This news includes the Sunday issue, seven papers per week, twenty-five cents.

We are prepared to do all kinds of job work in plain and fancy colors at the shortest notice.

POLICE PROCEEDINGS. Monday, Nov.
6th.—His Honor Judge Harbinson was in his seat at the usual time, presiding over this august tribunal with a benign contemnor. He was evidently inclined to be merciful in some drunken cases, which circumstance must have evidently been due to his serenity in not having been disturbed on Sunday. The dark cases were as usual preponderant.

James Wallace was fined $5 for assault and battery on Miss Powell; he is a hook-man, and had driven his hook over the young lady; his own body in $10 was allowed for good behavior.

The following cases were fined for drunkenness and disorderly conduct: John Davis (f. m. c.), $2; M. O'Bryan $5; J. D. Hanks; John Huly (f. m. c.) $2; King, Mary; King, John; King, $2; Mrs.
Proctor, $5.

Hugh Adams, A. W. Foreman, Elizabeth Sullivan and Daniel Leary, who were all drunk, were let off with the admonition not to sin any more.

Sarah J. Grant, stealing a silver watch from Adam Raddecker; continued until tomorrow.

Henry Venable, slave, cutting out the eyes of George, L. B. C.; continued till the 10th.

Chas. Glidden, stealing clothing from Fred Luick; continued till Wednesday morning.

Jas. Mitchell was dead drunk and carried concealed a deadly weapon. He was fined $5 and held to bail in $75 to answer an indictment.

Thos. Ranck, alias Hollingsworth, is charged with attempting to pass counterfeit money; his case will be attended to Saturday morning.

Isaac Bird (f. m. c.) was held to bail in $20 to answer a felony, to-wit: The cutting of Boyd Owen (f. m. c.) with intent to kill.

Amelia Duncan (f. w. c.), stealing $100 from the Circuit Court for stealing a carpet-case, containing clothing, from B. S. Lowenthal.

Peter, a slave of Jno. Malve, was drunk. He will have a hearing to-morrow.

Maria, a slave of Mr. Armstrong, stole a shawl from her mistress; discharged.

John F. Lee, false swearing, will be heard in the morning.

Several ordinances and peace warrants were disposed of.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS. THURSDAY, AGAINST THE L. & P. R. R.—In the Democrat of yesterday we made mention of the case of A. C. Smith, vs. the Louisville & Portland Railroad Co. The case was tried at the 10th of October, before J. W.
F. Bullock for the plaintiff, and Caldwell and Rippy for the defense. The amount of damages claimed was $20,000.
The jury, after a short absence, brought in a verdict for the plaintiff, assessing $4,750 damages.

In the case of Blakely & Co. against the city the amount of judgment, $13,614 75, having been paid into the court, was drawn out by the plaintiff.

To-day the case of J. G. Harris vs. the Union, for libel will be tried. The amount of damages claimed is $10,000.

Judge Muir has returned to the city, and now presides over the court with his usual dignity.

The families residing on Sixth street, excepting those who the city cars which gather up the refuse, kitchens and back yards within the city, have vacant lots at or near Lexington street, and immediately on their residences.

This is certainly a great wrong and should be at once remedied by the city authorities. Those persons are right in protesting against their immediate neighborhoods being made the receptacle of all the filth of the city, while the health of their families is greatly jeopardized and the comfort of their homes destroyed. If this is not stopped at once they are determined, they say, to see to it that it shall be.

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.—On last Tuesday afternoon a difficulty occurred between Lexington and Sixth streets, between Green and Marshall, in which Richard Worrell was struck on the head with a brick and severely injured by George Ritman. It appears Worrell, who was cleaning out the street, ran against a fence which belongs to Mr. Ritman. For this, angry words ensued, which resulted in Worrell receiving the wound above stated. Ritman was arrested by officer Thomas Ryan.

ANOTHER CONSPIRATOR.—In the Democrat of yesterday we made mention of the arrest of one Littel upon the charge of passing counterfeit scrip on Market street. Yesterday morning Officer Chas.
McKinney arrested Frank Dor, who is an accomplice of Littel. He also had a considerable amount of bogus scrip.

The Marshal of the Chancery Court yesterday made the sale of 60 feet by 30, and improvements, on the south side of Main street near Beargrass bridge, for $5,500. Also 34 by 138 feet on the east side of Third between Guthrie and Walnut streets, for $700.

Last night's mail brought us the Hancock Messenger, a paper published at Hawkinsville, Ky. It is a weekly, devoted to the interests of that section, and is edited by G. W. Williams, Esq.

McGill & Webb, on Fourth street, near the corner of Green, are prepared to furnish all lovers of the wood with the finest cigars and tobacco to be found in the country.

Any one having a house to rent on one of any of the street railroads will have a reliable tenant by addressing "S. T." at this office.

Mlle Marie Zoo and Harry Gilbert appear to-night at the Louisville Theater, in the most terrific arena combat ever seen on the stage.

We are glad to notice the improvements being made upon our streets. Let the good work go on.

Meeting of the School Board.
The Board met according to adjournment last night, nineteen members being present.

Bills and salaries to the amount of about $14,000 were allowed.

Mr. Danforth, from the Committee on Examination and Course of Study, reported in favor of establishing a night school, which report was accepted.

Mr. Oliver Lucas, from the Third ward, reported that there was not sufficient room for the scholars in the school at Butcher's Hill, having a seat in the school room, Report accepted without motion.

Mr. Elliott, from the Fourth ward, reported in favor of allowing Miss Clementine Stell her salary for the time had been deducted, and she was to be paid the amount of her salary before the morning of the 1st of November.

Miss Clementine Stell her salary for the time had
the amount of her salary before the morning of the 1st of November.

The Committee of the Seventh ward reported that said school was too much crowded for the health of the pupils attending the same, and recommending that another building should be rented to accommodate all the children in the ward, for the purpose of not injuring the health of the pupils.

Miss Laura Saulsbury was elected as the second class in the Twelfth ward school.

A motion to allow scholars in the Twelfth ward to attend any school in the district they please was referred to the Trustees of that district and Superintendent.

Berry, the one-armed Berry, Capt. Hammers, with a Henry rifle, shot Tom Berry, wounding and capturing him, and sent him to this city on the R. K. Dunkerton, and he is now in close quarters in the military prison, having been brought there by the sheriff of that county.

Berry's gang, when last heard of, were seeking a refuge of refuge in the hills, but the citizens of Breckinridge and other adjoining counties are preparing themselves to make quick work of these highway-men. If they come in contact with Tom Berry, he is in present now, as a result, Tom Berry's gang, in the military prison, having been brought there by the sheriff of that county.

All persons desirous of consulting them should do so with as little delay as possible, and their care to continue treatment after their departure. Office, 161 Second street, between Green and Walnut. TAT —Zoo and Harry Gilbert to-night at the Louisville Theater.

Amusements.

WOOD'S THEATER.—We are pleased to see you all again to-day. We will be glad to welcome back the charming and brilliant Miss Jenny Hight, the well known, and admirable French Spy.
